1. Introduction

The Norman A. Smith Memorial Scholarship honours a long serving RSL member. Norman worked tirelessly to assist ex-service personnel and families coping with the many problems that confronted them post World War Two.

Norman was an executive member of RSL Victoria and the Waverley RSL Sub-Branch Inc. He expressed keen interest in the welfare and personal development of young people. He was also intensely interested in and involved with competitive sport and encouraged them to participate in physical fitness.

The Scholarship was established in 1986 and has been awarded annually.

2. Object of the Scholarship
